Box 1  Fournet Campaign Speech (1962)
Box 2  Duplicate of No.2
Box 3  15 minute film (1962) with U.S. Senator Russell Long speaking on behalf of Fournet’s candidacy for reelection. Besides slanting his remarks to let people know that Fournet was a Longite, Russell criticizes Fournet’s opponent, Judge Lee. He also defends Fournet’s ruling that beer was not intoxicating in answer to the Louisiana Moral and Civic Foundation’s opposition to Fournet on those grounds.

Box 4  15 minute film (1962), “Re-Elect John B. Fournet…” A campaign film consisting of an interview (interviewer unknown and face not shown). Questions and Fournet’s responses focus upon his early career and contributions as a legislator (Longite measures are named), his Supreme Court achievements, and a closing statement by Fournet appealing to voters. (Note: two identical sessions are included on one reel).

Narrated by an unidentified man seated at a desk with the Louisiana State Supreme Court Building seen through the window. He uses copies of original photographs and quotations from men such as Huey P. Long, E. Howard McCaleb, Thomas Leigh, and Paul Hebert to highlight Fournet’s career, accomplishments, and qualifications.

Two boxes of 35mm transparencies prepared for campaign slide shows. Show B contains numbered slides 1-12 (7 is missing), and Show A contains slides 1-6. A second box contains duplicate slides from the above shows (14 slides).

Box 5  1 minute film clip, “John B. Fournet First Chief Justice From Out District” (1962). Wants to be elected for the eight years whereupon he will retire and the method of electing the Chief Justice rather than appointing him be instituted. (2 copies)

Short negative film clip consisting of Fournet’s appeal to the voters of his district for their vote. (3 copies: two housed in boxes, one loose)

1 minute film clip, “You Be the Judge” (1962) dealing with Fournet’s qualifications for reelection as Chief Justice of the Louisiana Supreme Court. (3 copies)
