BIOGRAPHICAL/HISTORICAL NOTE

Thomas Harry Williams (1909-1979) was a Professor of History at Louisiana State University, Baton Rouge, from 1941 until his retirement in May of 1979. A scholar and prolific writer, he authored numerous books, articles, and book reviews. He was a distinguished and popular faculty member and a superb public speaker. He was active in several historical associations and received many awards and honors.

Williams was born in Illinois. His mother, Emma Necollins Williams, died before he was two years old. Soon after her death, T. Harry Williams and his father, William D. Williams, moved to Hazel Green, Wisconsin to live with his paternal grandparents. In 1952, T. Harry Williams married Estelle Skolfield Williams. He had one stepdaughter, Mai Frances Doles.

He received his early education in the local schools of Hazel Green, Wisconsin. In 1931 he received a bachelor's degree in education from Platteville State Teachers College, Wisconsin. Unable to find a teaching job, he entered graduate school that year at the University of Wisconsin to study history. While at the University of Wisconsin, he studied under William B. Hesseltine and earned a Master's degree (1932) and Ph.D. (1937) in history. Williams began teaching history in the Extension Department of the University of Wisconsin in 1936. He then taught at the University of Omaha from 1938 until 1941. He began teaching at Louisiana State University in the fall of 1941.

Williams was awarded the title of Boyd Professor in 1953. He was an enthusiastic and stimulating classroom lecturer and spoke to overflow crowds of students. In 1979 the L.S.U. Board of Supervisors established the T. Harry Williams Chair of American History. In that same year, the T. Harry Williams Scholarship Fund was created. Among his many academic honors were; Doctor of Law, Northland College (1953); Guggenheim Fellow (1957); Doctor of Letters, Bradley University (1959); Harry S. Truman Award in Civil War History (1964); Harmsworth Professor of American History, Queen's College, Oxford England (1966-1967); Doctor of Humane Letters, Loyola University (1974); and Doctor of Humane Letters, Tulane University (1979).

He described himself as a "narrative historian," meaning he wrote and lectured for the general reader and listener. His first book, Lincoln and the Radicals, was published by the University of Wisconsin Press in 1941. Williams published more than fifteen books from 1941 until 1979. Two books were published after his death. In 1969, Williams received much acclaim for his book, Huey Long. In this book he used the new research technique of oral history. Williams was awarded the National Book Award and the Pulitzer Prize for Huey Long. Williams served as President of the Southern Historical Association (1958-1959) and Organization of American Historians (1972-1973). He was a guest lecturer at numerous colleges, universities, historical associations, and Civil War Round Tables.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

The T. Harry Williams Papers includes correspondence, writings, records, research material, literary productions, printed material, photographs, and audio/visual material from Thomas Harry Williams (1909-1979), author and professor of history at Louisiana State University in Baton Rouge, La. The correspondence documents his personal and professional activities and associations. Personal family letters are included as well as correspondence of his wife Estelle Williams. There is a series of correspondence that reveals Williams' research efforts on his Pulitzer Prize-winning book Huey Long. Other writings include articles, speeches, and reviews, primarily by Williams, but other authors as well.

As a scholar and writer Williams gathered a great deal of research material including manuscripts, notes, notecards, clippings on topics such as the Civil War and its major figures, U.S. history, military history, and Louisiana Governor and Senator Huey Long. Included is Williams' collection of oral history interviews related to Huey Long. Other literary productions include handwritten manuscripts, typescripts, page proofs, galley proofs, and sample pages, along with notes and corrections by Williams and various editors. The printed materials in the collection include programs, publications, and numerous maps reflective of Williams's research topics and professional engagements.

The photograph section includes carte de visites, personal and professional photographs, images used as book illustrations, and several documenting the Huey Long era. Fifteen scrapbooks contain publicity materials, reviews of his books, and information about speaking engagements, travels, awards, and congratulatory letters to Williams. The Audio/Visual materials include a 16mm film strip of Williams, reel-to-reel master tapes of oral history interviews, speeches, and presentations, and copies of these items for public use.

SERIES LIST AND DESCRIPTIONS

Series I. Correspondence, 1926-1980, undated (8 linear feet)

The Correspondence series is divided into seven subseries as follows:

Subseries A. Personal and Professional correspondence reflect his academic career and relationships with friends, colleagues, and students. Included are letters from Stephen E. Ambrose, Oliver P. Carriere, William B. Hesseltine, Warren L. Jones, and Charles L. Dufour. Letters from United States Presidents include: John F. Kennedy (2/11/1957), Harry Truman (11/19/1959, 2/24/1964), and Lyndon B. Johnson (5/15/1965). Originals of these letters are housed in the vault and copies are filed by date.

Subseries B. Publications are primarily comprised of correspondence with editors of Alfred A. Knopf, Inc., and other publishing companies. In addition, it contains correspondence from Richard N. Current and Frank Freidel, co-authors of the textbook A History of the U.S.

Subseries C. Professional Organizations record Williams' involvement and contribution to the Southern History Association and Organization of American Historians. He held the office of president in SHA and OAH and was a founding member of Friends of LSU Libraries.

Subseries D. Awards include correspondence with the Guggenheim Foundation, an award which he used to research the book, Huey Long. Also included is correspondence related to the Pulitzer Prize, the National Book Award, and his stay in England as the Harmsworth Professor of American History at Oxford University.

Subseries E. Miscellaneous contains correspondence related to his suspension from the University of Wisconsin, due to a controversial lecture on Abraham Lincoln.

Subseries F. Huey P. Long correspondence reflect his early research efforts, included are letters to potential candidates for oral history interviews and letters from individuals knowledgeable of Huey Long . Also included are copies and original letters of Huey Long. Correspondence with Russell Long reflects his relationship with Williams and his assistance with the biography of his father, Huey Long. Harley Bozeman was a childhood friend of Huey Long and assisted Williams in his research, providing a great deal of background information.

Subseries G. Estelle Williams, wife of T. Harry Williams, contains her personal and professional correspondence. She assisted Williams in his research and oversaw the publications of two books after his death. The family correspondence is comprised of letters from family members including his father, William D. Williams.

Series II. Writings, 1924-1979, undated (2 linear feet)

This series contains his early academic writings; high school and college term papers and a copy of his M.A. thesis. Also contained are numerous articles, reviews, reports, by Williams as well as colleagues and students. Contained are notes and transcriptions of speeches and lectures. Topics include: Huey Long, Lyndon Johnson, oral history, LSU and various history courses. (Note: The Audio/Visual series contains audio recordings of select speeches and presentations from this series).

Series III. Records, 1944, 1952-1979 (0.25 linear feet)

These records reflect his participation in various organizations. Williams was president of SHA and OHA. He was appointed to the Louisiana Civil War Centennial Commission and to the Louisiana Bicentennial Commission. Also contained are records from his Pulitzer Prize Award and an NEH. grant. Personal records include a military draft registration and royalty statements.

Series IV. Research Materials, 1986-1890, undated (5 linear feet)

This series is comprised of notecards, notes, clippings, originals and copies of manuscripts (diaries, correspondence, & documents). The notecards, notes, and clippings cover various historical topics, such as; Civil War, major civil war figures, U.S. History, and military history. Copies and transcripts of diaries and correspondence are included along with two original letters and two original documents; George Trent letter (1869), Gen. B.F. Butler letter (1861), Union Order (1861) and Grimes document (1890). This series also contains several boxes of research file cards on Lyndon Baines Johnson.

Series V. Research Materials. Huey P. Long, 1952-1966, undated (4 linear feet)

This series reflects Williams's accumulation of material on Long. Included are notecards, notes, clippings covering a wide variety of topics including his childhood, family, elections, assassination, and funeral. Also included are speeches by Long. Legal documents and records include two items relating to Public Service Commission and Standard Oil Company, military registration, Win or Lose Inc., succession of Long, and scholastic records from the University of Oklahoma and Tulane. Miscellaneous contains microfilm copies from Duke University of the following manuscript collections: Huey P. Long Papers, Irby Papers, Socialist Party of America Papers, and Harry Slattery Papers. Oral history interview transcripts are also found in this series. Williams sometimes referred to these as confidential communications. There are 235 identified interviews, filed alphabetically and listed in Appendix B. (Note: The Audio/Visual series contains select audio recordings of interviews from this series)

Series VI. Literary Productions, 1951-1980, undated (7 linear feet)

This series contains manuscripts (handwritten pages by Williams), typescripts, page proofs, galley proofs, and sample pages of his books published from 1951 until 1980. It also includes literary productions of the two books published after his death with notes and corrections by
