SERIES DESCRIPTIONS

I. Family Papers - Collection consists of papers related to the Dayries, Provosty and Labatut families of Pointe Coupee Parish, La.; Albert Diettel, a New Orleans architect.

- A. Dayries Family Papers - Bernard Edward Dayries was a planter of Pointe Coupee Parish, La. He married Clothilde Virginie LeDoux, daughter of Zenon and Marie Felicite Adelaide (Armant) LeDoux. Papers consist of legal and financial documents pertaining to business affairs, the estate of Bernard Edward Dayries, and purchases made from various merchants. They include accounts, receipts, promissory notes, inventories, and photographic negatives of Pointe Coupee Parish records on Zenon LeDoux. The account for Nov. 5, 1858, states a cash price for slaves.
- B. Provosty Family Papers - Court documents related to the estates and succession of Michel Auguste Provosty and his son, Auguste Provosty, comprise the majority of these papers. Earliest papers are photocopies of originals (1826-1838). Other items include travel documents (in French) for Michel Auguste (1826), inventories goods and property, including a slave list, of Michel Auguste Provosty (April 24, 1827) and Auguste Provosty (Dec. 12, 1868, Nov. 28, 1891), distribution of assets (April 22, 1876), and a photograph (copy print) of Eliska Labry Provosty (n.d.). There are also the class grades (1867-1869) and store accounts (1865-1867) of Olivier and his brother, Raphael, while attending Georgetown University, Washington, D.C. (photographic negatives), and letters (photographic negatives) regarding a silver medal awarded to Zenon LeDoux by George Town College, Washington, D.C. in 1839 and returned to Georgetown University (1953) by a decedent.
- C. Labatut Family Papers and Photographs - Printed material and photographs pertaining to the descendents of General Jean Baptiste Labatut and to the Labatut House located near New Roads in Pointe Coupee Parish, La. Printed materials, primarily photocopies, contain the histories of the Labatut family, Labatut House, and the Louisiana Milita organized under Governor Claiborne. Photographs (1973, 1976) show the interior and exterior of Labatut House, family members, and include copy prints of unidentified 18th century portraits found in the Labatut House.
- D. Albert Diettel Papers - Bernard Albert Diettel, a German immigrant, became one of New Orleans' most distinguished architects of the 19th century. Papers are primarily those of Bernard Albert Diettel and his son, Hans Arthur Diettel. They include photographs, illustrations, and photocopies of articles related to the buildings Bernard Albert Diettel designed in New Orleans and surrounding areas. Papers also contain a chronological family history with some entries in German (ca. 1900); a history of St. John the Baptist Church in

New Orleans (n.d.); a textile copy of a German monetary note; a photocopy of a published article on the architect, Henry Howard, with a list of buildings he designed in New Orleans; and the school reports of Hans Arthur Diettel. Other items include papers and photographs of Hans Arthur's son, Aldophe Albert Diettel, documenting his military service at Camp Beauregard, La., during World War I.

II. Civil War Records - Civil War military records and Confederate currency

- A. Civil War Records - Civil War military records consist of requisitions (1861), muster roll for the 38th Massachusetts Volunteers (1863), receipts of the 8th U. S.
