Summary This collection of photographs and a few textual materials provides a largely visual record of the allied Gebelin, Walsh, Hynes, and Frenzel families. Beginning in the 1860s and continuing through the 1980s, portraits and informal photographs document the lives of family members and family friends and acquaintances. A few images, beginning 1900 and continuing until the 1960s, record three family homes in Baton Rouge. The bulk of the material documents the life and times of Elizabeth Gertrude Gebelin Hynes (February 20, 1911-February 9, 1982) including her childhood, marriage, travels, family events, and social life and customs of Baton Rouge, Louisiana.

Access Restrictions No restrictions on access.

Reproduction Note No aspect of the donation will be used commercially without express written permission of one of the donors during their lifetime or for 50 years from the date of donation, whichever is shorter. It is the responsibility of the donors to provide current contact information. If a donor cannot be reached after a good faith effort, which the Libraries will document, the LSU Libraries may allow the use.

Donation of digital scans described above does not preclude any use the donors may wish to make of their own files of the same scans or of the originals represented by the scans but retained by the donors. However, the LSU Libraries may, for the purposes of providing access to and administering and use of the collection, treat scans of images not donated as it would if the originals were owned by the Libraries. The scans of the Fonville photographs of the servers and the quartet from Elizabeth Gebelin and Jimmy Hynes's wedding may be viewed but not reproduced or published for 20 years after the date of this agreement.

Copyright Copyright in the materials created by the donors or their parents and not in the public domain is retained by the donors during their lifetimes.

BIOGRAPHICAL/HISTORICAL NOTE

The Gebelin, Walsh, Hynes, and Frenzel families have a long history in Baton Rouge, La.¹ The families' alliance begins with the marriage of Elizabeth Ellen "Lizzie" Walsh (11/27/1874-4/21/1955) and Joseph Gebelin (2/3/1853-3/3/1953). The couple married on October 31, 1900, at St. Joseph Church in Baton Rouge. Joseph Gebelin was the son of Jean Baptiste Gebelin and Marguerite Morel, natives of France who married in Marseilles in 1850. Their other children included Augustine, who married Jean Baptiste Tessier; Baptistine, who married Fortune Jaubert; Pauline, who married Achille E. Bougere; and Joseph's half-sister Nora, the daughter of Jean Baptiste Gebelin and Honora or Honoré Quilter. Nora Gebelin married Achille E. Bougere's brother, Clarence.

Elizabeth "Lizzie" Walsh Gebelin was the daughter of Catherine Mulvihill and Thomas Walsh, who married in Baton Rouge in 1858. Elizabeth and her identical twin sister Gertrude "Gertie" Agnes (11/27/1874-9/29/1963) were the youngest of their ten children and graduated from St. Joseph Academy in Baton Rouge. Gertrude Agnes married William E. Salisbury at St. Joseph Church in Baton Rouge in 1905. The children and grandchildren of Elizabeth and Gertrude would remain close cousins. Other siblings of Elizabeth Walsh included Annie Maria, Mamie, and Katie.

Joseph Gebelin was an active and engaged member in Baton Rouge business, political, civic, and social activities. In the political arena he served as Louisiana's Assistant Secretary of State under Will A. Strong (1877-1884) and Oscar Arroyo (1884-1888), President of the East Baton Rouge Police Jury, and represented the First Ward on the Baton Rouge City Council from 1901 to 1908. In the business community, he served as President and Treasurer of Provident Bank and Loan Association; Cashier, Vice-President, President, and Chairman of the Board of the Bank of Baton Rouge; President of Home Savings and Loan; a member of the Board of Directors of Saint James Bank; on the first Board of Directors of City National Bank; Treasurer of Ewing Motion Picture Company; and held "lease ownership" of the ferry John J. Brown with Francis Phillips between 1881 and 1886. Gebelin's civic activities included service as Treasurer of the Istrouma Council of Boy Scouts for twenty-five years; a member of the Volunteer Fire Department, Jackson Four Division; a member of the Board of Trustees for St. Joseph Church for more than fifty years; and a member of the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce. In the social arena he was a charter and lifetime member of the Baton Rouge Council of the Knights of Columbus, a founding and charter member of the Baton Rouge Country Club, and played in the Independent Cornet Band.

Joseph and Elizabeth Walsh Gebelin raised two girls, Claire Beatrice (b. 1/7/1904), who married Seid Waddell Hendrix in 1927, and Elizabeth Gertrude Gebelin (2/20/1911-2/9/1982). The family resided at 219 Saint Phillip Street and, after 1912, 201 Saint Phillip Street, in downtown Baton Rouge. Elizabeth Gebelin graduated from Baton Rouge High School in 1927 and went on to attend the Academy of the Sacred Heart in Grand Coteau, La., and then the Academy of the Sacred Heart (Clifton) in Cincinnati, Ohio, from which she graduated. While in Cincinnati, she also took courses at the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music, earned a certificate from the National School of Interior Decoration (1930), and studied drama under a Mrs. Powell, the mother of actor Tyrone Powell. Elizabeth returned to Baton Rouge and earned an M.A. in Speech from Louisiana State University. Her thesis was entitled Prevalent Errors of Speech among the Children in Baton Rouge, Louisiana, and the Means of Their Correction (1932). Elizabeth Gebelin also actively participated in the productions of the LSU School of Music and Dramatic Arts, and she was also inducted into Kappa Delta sorority. At some point between her return to Baton Rouge and her wedding in 1940 Elizabeth and her cousin Juliette Amiss organized the Spinsters, a social club for unmarried young women. Elizabeth Gebelin married James “Jimmy” Horace Hynes on December 28, 1940.

James “Jimmy” Horace Hynes (12/13/1910-2/8/1985), called “Jimmy Daddy” by his children, was the son of William Arthur Hynes (8/3/1863-8/18/1916) and Mary Rose McManus (ca. 1886-1/11/1920) of Chicago, Illinois. James Hynes and his sister Sarah Augusta Hynes (b. 1909) became orphans in 1920 when Sarah was 11 years old and James was 9 years old. Sarah attended St. Joseph’s in Kalamazoo, Michigan, and married Luke Lea of Nashville, Tenn. Together they had six children.

Jimmy Hynes attended Barbour Hall, a boys’ Catholic boarding school in Flint, Michigan, and then the Seminary at Notre Dame. He attended Holy Cross High School and was in the Novitiate of the Holy Cross Fathers. He graduated from Spring Hill College in Mobile, Alabama, and then attended Georgetown Law School where he took his Juris Doctor degree. David Reynaud, a friend from Spring Hill College who also attended Georgetown University, introduced his cousin Elizabeth Gebelin to James while Elizabeth was in Washington, D.C., on the 1939 “Acadian Pilgrimage.” They married the following year and moved to Franklin, Tenn., where Jimmy practiced law. Together they had five children:

- Kenny Hynes (b. October 9, 1942) graduated from Gallaudet College (now Gallaudet University) in Washington, D.C.
- Mary Anne Hynes (b. December 10, 1943) graduated from LSU and earned a master’s degree at George Peabody College (Nashville, Tenn.) and married Michael Joseph Frenzel on July 16, 1966. Together they had three children:
 - Elizabeth Renee Frenzel (b. 1968)
 - Patrick Joseph Frenzel (b. 1969)
 - Michael Sean Frenzel (b. 1969)
- Joseph Gebelin Hynes (b. February 8, 1947) graduated from LSU and married Elaine Poirier on December 15, 1979, and had two children:
 - Joseph Gebelin Hynes (b. 1981)
 - Jessica Elaine Hynes (b. 1984)
- James “Jim” Horace Hynes, Jr. (b. October 3, 1949) graduated from Gallaudet College and then earned a master’s degree from American University in Washington, D.C., and married Maureen Coleen O’Grady (d. May 22, 2007) on September 20, 1987. Their children include:
 - Elizabeth O’Grady Hynes (b. 1991)
 - Joel “Jeb” Gebelin Hynes (b. 1993)
- Juliette Elizabeth Hynes (b. July 5, 1952) graduated from the University of Southwest Louisiana (now University of Louisiana at Lafayette) and earned her M.Ed. from Lesley College in Cambridge, Massachusetts. She married Jerome Vernon Smith on January 1, 1993.

Kenny and Jim were both born deaf and began their educations in St. Louis, Missouri, at Central Institute for the Deaf, then the St. Joseph Institute for the Deaf. The family later returned to Baton Rouge, and the two attended the Louisiana School for the Deaf. The Hyneses maintained an active and long-term involvement with the school. Jimmy served as campaign manager for Robert F. Kennon's successful run for governor of Louisiana in 1952. He was also a charter member of The Baton Rouge Assembly, which was established in 1961. Mary Anne Hynes was presented as an Assembly debutante in 1962, as was Juliette Hynes in 1971.

See the genealogical information prepared by Mary Anne Frenzel for additional family background.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

As a whole, the collection documents and illustrates twentieth-century social life and customs of a section of Baton Rouge society. It is comprised largely of photographic materials dating from around 1860 through 1980 documenting family members, special events, travels, and family homes. Photographic materials provide a fairly thorough chronological record of family members up to 1965. Included in this material is a small series documenting family homes. Of particular interest is a set of photographs of the exterior of the family home at 219 Saint Phillip Street (1901), exterior and interior photographs of 201 Saint Phillip Street (1912-1915), and exterior photographs of 8642 Jefferson Highway (circa 1955-1970). There are relatively few photographs dating from 1965 to 1980 and they are primarily group portraits of family members.

Print materials include copies of high school annuals, certificates, wedding materials, articles from various publications, and promotional and informational materials from the Queen Elizabeth 2. There is very little correspondence in the collection; what there is of it consists largely of a few letters from children to their parents or to friends and a few telegrams marking special occasions.

A microfilmed scrapbook compiled by Mary Anne Hynes Frenzel contains clippings and other printed items documenting the social, civic, and professional activities and personal lives primarily of Elizabeth and Jimmy Hynes and their children, including but not limited to the wedding of Elizabeth and Jimmy Hynes; Mary Anne Hynes Frenzel's involvement in the parish of St. Joseph's Cathedral and St. Joseph's Cemetery; the Louisiana School for the Deaf and Juliette Hynes's work with the deaf (Kenny and James Hynes, Jr. are deaf); Old Hickory Lodge, a social club founded by Elizabeth and Jimmy Hynes; and debuts, weddings, deaths, and club involvement. Information on the Gebelin family is also included.

SERIES DESCRIPTIONS

I. Elizabeth Ellen “Lizzie” Walsh Gebelin, ca. 1876-1920

This series is comprised of portraits of Elizabeth Ellen “Lizzie” Walsh Gebelin as a young woman; those taken for her engagement and wedding and immediately following her marriage; photographs with her twin sister Gertrude as children, upon graduation from St. Joseph’s Academy, and with their children Elizabeth Gebelin Hynes, Claire, and Gertie’s daughter Bessie Salisbury; black and white snap shots of her with family; and one image from a trip to Quebec, Canada. Photographs (1995) of Walsh and Mulvihill grave markers are included here.

II. Joseph Jean Baptiste Gebelin, ca. 1900-ca. 1940

This series is comprised primarily of photographs of Joseph Jean Baptiste Gebelin depicting his family, travels, and business associations. It includes group portraits of the first Board of Directors of City National Bank of Baton Rouge (undated but after 1933); an interior shot of the Bank of Baton Rouge, showing Gebelin and Eugene Cazedessus (ca. 1920-1930); and Gebelin as a Baton Rouge City Council member (1901). An image of a group of men holding sugar cane in front of the Old State Capitol is also present (undated but after 1882). Several portraits (ca. 1900-1940) are included, as well as snapshots of family vacations at Lookout Mountain (1904) and Killarney, Ireland (undated but ca. 1920) and a group photo of Gebelin with his wife Elizabeth Walsh Gebelin, Gertrude Walsh Salisbury, and his sisters (ca. 1900). Non-photographic items include an obligatory letter (July 8, 1868) from Gebelin to his parents; photocopies of a commemorative booklet for the 75th anniversary of the Baton Rouge Country Club (1991); and the statement of condition on opening day for the City National Bank of Baton Rouge (after 1933), for which Gebelin was a member of the board of directors.

III. Walsh-Gebelin family relatives and friends, images, 1863-1905

This series is comprised primarily of images of members of the allied Salisbury, Jaubert, Bougère, Dow, Tessier, Gebelin, Duggan, Clerc, and Reynaud families. The cartes de visite and cabinet cards were created in studios in New Orleans, Baton Rouge, and Galveston, Texas. Most are unidentified, but those identified include members of the Salisbury, Jaubert and Bougère, Dow, Gebelin, Duggan, Clerc, and Reynaud families, particularly Achille Bougère; Baptistine “Bêbe” Gebelin; Louise Angéline Jaubert; Bessie, Marie Louise, and William Salisbury; and Catherine Mulvihill Walsh and her daughter Gertrude Agnes Walsh Salisbury. Also included is a series of four images related to St. Joseph Church and its parish priest, Father Delacroix, who served the parish between 1865 and 1893 and is buried under the cathedral. Three unidentified tintypes are also present, including one of an African-American woman, ca. 1860s. Finally, a mounted photograph of Viola Bougere (in hat) and Juanita Bougere (with parasol) in a flower-bedecked horse cart (ca.1900) and an unidentified group in front of a plantation home (ca. 1890) are also included.

A bound photocopy of the diary of Annie Maria Walsh’s (1870-1953) tour of Ireland, 1932, is found in this series, as is a printout of Gertrude Walsh’s essay “Regrets.” It was written during her senior year at St. Joseph’s Academy in Baton Rouge in June 1895.

IV. Elizabeth Gertrude Gebelin Hynes, 1911-1982

Subseries 1. Photographs, 1911-1920

This subseries includes images of Elizabeth Gertrude Gebelin shortly after her birth through her ninth year; a set of images from her 11th birthday (1922); a number of images circa 1930; wedding photographs (1940); and a mixed collection of images (ca. 1930-1981) including snapshots of Elizabeth Gertrude Gebelin Hynes at costumed events, holidays, parties, recreational activities, and other settings.

Subseries 2. On the set of Band of Angels, 1957

Having studied drama and theater arts, Elizabeth Gertrude Gebelin Hynes clearly had an affinity for acting. She was an extra in Band of Angels, based on the Robert Penn Warren novel. The film was shot in and around Ashland-Belle Helene Plantation, Geismer, Louisiana. This subseries includes an “album” and loose photographs taken on-set.

Subseries 3. Photographs of friends, ca. 1917-1977

This subseries includes photographs of various friends from childhood through college and well into adulthood. A few images may have been taken at Old Hickory Lodge. One professional photograph was taken in New Orleans at the Roosevelt Hotel’s Blue Room (ca. 1955).

Subseries 4. Travels, ca. 1919-1981

This subseries includes images from family trips to a number of locations around the globe including Ellsworth, Maine; Cyprus; Israel; Egypt; and Jamaica. Also included here are a set of printed materials from the Queen Elizabeth 2 tenth Anniversary Transatlantic Crossing (1979) as well a scrapbooks of trips to Cuba (1934) and Jamaica (ca. 1960). The Cuba scrapbook also contains a few pages from her school days.

Subseries 5. Clubs and Groups, ca. 1930

This subseries includes group photographs from Elizabeth’s college days in Ohio and her cohorts in The Spinsters, a club she and a cousin established for unmarried women in Baton Rouge.

Subseries 6. Papers, 1921-1982

This subseries includes correspondence, telegrams, a Character Sketch Album (1925) in which she recorded traits and likes of her classmates at Sacred Heart Academy (ca. 1925), a homemade booklet “This is Your Life, 1911-1961,” invitations, baptism and membership certificates, a diploma, a xerographic copy of the Baton Rouge High School Annual (1927), a copy of The Pelican (newsletter from the Louisiana School for the Deaf), and newspaper clippings related to the Spinsters Club. Wedding memorabilia includes an invitation, Mass card, and scrapbook (1940).

V. James Horace “Jimmy Daddy” Hynes, ca. 1890-1975

Subseries 1. Photographs, ca. 1890-1994

This subseries includes images of James’ parents, his sister, and himself in school at Barbour Hall, Flint, Michigan, and Spring Hill College, Mobile, Alabama. Two photos of him in uniform, one taken in Tsingtao, China (October 27, 1945) and another being a portrait by Fonville Winans, are also found here. There are a number of images related to social occasions, friends, family, and his daughter Mary Anne's wedding. A few images created in 1994 document his family homes and family grave markers in Chicago.

Subseries 2. Printed material, Spring Hill College, Mobile, Alabama, 1933 - 2007

This subseries includes xerographic copies of grade reports and other materials related to Spring Hill College, including the school's fight song, which he wrote. Also included are original print issues of the Spring Hill newsletters and magazine.

VI. Mary Anne Hynes Frenzel, ca. 1950-2009

Subseries 1. Photographs, ca. 1950-1962

This subseries includes photographs of Mary Anne Hynes Frenzel from the time she was a child until her debutante presentation in 1962, including photographs of her presenting flowers to Mrs. Kennon at the inauguration of her husband as governor and her Le Cercle de Bacchus and Baton Rouge Assembly presentations. Her wedding photographs are included in Series V above.

Subseries 2. Printed material, 1952-1985

This subseries includes materials related to the inauguration of Louisiana Governor Robert F. Kennon, her Le Cercle de Bacchus presentation (1962), and a xerographic copy of The Baton Rouge Assembly Silver Jubilee: A Record of Twenty-five Years, 1961-1985.

Subseries 3. Genealogical file, ca. 1860-2009

The file contains correspondence, notes, transcriptions of records and newspaper articles and obituaries, family histories, and copies of family documents compiled by Mary Anne Hynes Frenzel in relation to the Jaubert, Gebelin, Walsh, Hynes, Tessier, Reynaud, and allied families. Many of these same files are also found on the Hynes Family History CD, located in Series IX. Also found here are printouts of some scanned photographs of members of these same families; scans are found on the Hynes Family History CD in IX, and originals of many of the same photographs are also found in Series III. See the appendix for a listing of the files on the CD.

Subseries 4. Scrapbook, ca. 1911-2007

A microfilmed scrapbook compiled by Mary Anne Hynes Frenzel contains clippings documenting the social, civic, and professional activities and personal lives of primarily Elizabeth and Jimmy Hynes and their children, including but not limited to the wedding of Elizabeth and Jimmy Hynes; Mary Anne Hynes Frenzel's involvement in the parish of St. Joseph's Cathedral and St. Joseph's Cemetery; the Louisiana School for the Deaf and Juliette Hynes's work with the deaf; Old Hickory Lodge, a social club founded by Elizabeth and Jimmy Hynes; and debuts, weddings, deaths, and club involvement. Information on the Gebelin family is also included.

Loose items that accompanied the scrapbook are also included in the microfilm. These are genealogical information prepared by Mary Anne Hynes Frenzel, a booklet entitled "This is Your Life Elizabeth Gebelin Hynes" prepared for her 50th birthday, her certificate of baptism, graduation and dance invitation (1928), certificates for Interior Decoration and Expression and Dramatic Art (1930), birth announcement of Joseph Gebelin Hynes (1947), party invitations, 50th birthday telegrams, and a program for a ballet in which she was involved (1954). The original scrapbook and booklet were returned to Mrs. Frenzel after microfilming, but the originals of the loose items have been retained.

VII. Homes, ca. 1905-ca. 1960

Photographs of three of the Gebelin-Walsh-Hynes homes are included in this series: 219 Saint Phillip Street (ca. 1905-1907), 201 Saint Phillip Street (ca. 1915), and 8642 Jefferson Highway (ca. 1960).

VIII. Buildings, Baton Rouge, ca. 1895-ca. 1945

Images of St. Joseph Parochial School (339 North) and St. Joseph Church (now St. Joseph Cathedral, 4th and Main Streets), and Old Hickory Lodge are included in this series.

IX. Digital files, ca. 1850-2007, files created 2008 and 2009

This series includes 447 digital files of family photographs, histories, and documents provided by the donor and 440 digital images created from Mary Anne Hynes Frenzel's microfilmed scrapbook. It includes portraits of the Gebelin, Walsh, Jaubert, Salisbury, Hynes, and Frenzel families among others; photographs of the family home at 219 St. Philip; Elizabeth Gebelin Hynes with her children; photographs of parties at Old Hickory Lodge, many featuring James Hynes; and photographs of family, servers, and musicians at the Gebelin-Hynes wedding. In most instances, the collection also contains prints or originals of the images provided on disc, but not all, and most textual items of a genealogical nature have been printed and filed in the series for Mary Anne Hynes Frenzel. Images of non-photographic items show the essay "Regrets" written by Gertrude Gebelin as a student at St. Joseph's Academy and an invitation to the Academy's 1895 commencement exercises. See the appendix for a complete listing of these files. A full description of the scrapbook is found in the Mary Anne Hynes Frenzel series. Printouts of many of the scans are also found in her genealogical files.
