BIOGRAPHICAL/HISTORICAL NOTE

John B. Vinet was a Confederate captain of the Pontooniers, Orleans Artillery Battalion, Louisiana Militia. Early in the war he was assigned to the Quartermaster's Department and later (1864) to the Engineer's Department under Colonel Samuel Lockett. He was paroled in 1865 in Mobile, Alabama. Vinet received gubernatorial appointments as Ordnance Officer, with the rank of Brigadier General, 1880-1881; public administrator for Orleans Parish, 1888; and Chief of Ordnance, Louisiana State National Guard, 1889-1896.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

Papers include Civil War dispatches, field orders, vouchers, passes and correspondence. Other items include account statements and receipts for food purchased for the Confederate troops; Vinet's expense accounts (1863) for travel and surveying excursions in Mississippi and Alabama; and a map depicting Confederate fortifications in Macon County, Alabama. Documents related to Vinet's various post-Civil War appointments are also present. A notebook (1861) kept by G. R. Stankey, a physician of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, contains remedies, many of which are in French, for various maladies. Two case record books belonging to Vinet pertain to relief administered by the Howard Association, a New Orleans philanthropic society organized to give aid to those in need, particularly during yellow fever epidemics. Entries record statistics compiled by Vinet during the 1878 yellow fever epidemic, such as individuals who received relief, where they lived, places of birth, nationalities, and attending physicians and nurses. Two of the three published volumes address military tactics, and the remaining volume describes the funeral ceremonies honoring James A. Garfield, held in New Orleans in September of 1881.
