BIOGRAPHICAL/HISTORICAL NOTE

Albert A. Batchelor, son of Thomas A. G. Batchelor (1813-1868) and Martha L. Batchelor (1821-1862), was a doctor and planter of Red River Landing in Pointe Coupee Parish, Louisiana. He attended the Kentucky Military Institute and fought for the Confederacy with the 2nd Regiment, Louisiana Infantry. Batchelor also managed or had interests in several other plantations, including Bella Vista Plantation, Lakeside Plantation, Phoenix Plantation, Highland Plantation, and Normandy Plantation. Batchelor served on the Pointe Coupee Parish Police Jury, the School Board of Point Coupee (1884), and was elected to a term in the Louisiana State Legislature (1888-1892). He married Cornelia Randolph Stewart (also known as Pet), daughter of Gus Stewart; the two had no children.

Batchelor's siblings are also represented in the collection. They include Mollie, Iverson G. (1846-1900), Charles J. (1838-1878), James Madison, Thomas (possibly 1850-1868), and Kate. All of the brothers of age also served in the Confederacy, Charles and James alongside Albert in the 2nd Louisiana and Iverson in the 1st Louisiana Cavalry. Iverson was also involved with running the family plantations and acquired additional land. James Madison eventually settled in Vicksburg, and Mollie in Baltimore, after marrying a Mr. Patton. Many of the Batchelor family members are buried in St. Stephen's Episcopal Church Cemetery, Innis, Pointe Coupee Parish, Louisiana.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

Personal and business papers of Albert A. Batchelor and family, planters of Red River Landing, Pointe Coupee Parish, including account books and related papers, correspondence, diaries, and contracts and leases. The collection relates principally to plantation operation and management of several plantations in Pointe Coupee Parish, including a considerable body of materials reflecting the transition from slave to free labor economy and certain economic, social, and political problems inherent in that change. The materials also pertain to student life at school in Louisiana, Kentucky, and Mississippi prior to and during the early years of the Civil War; military service in the Confederate States Army and life on the home front during the war; study of medicine at the University of Louisiana; expressions of public opinion on rechartering the Louisiana State Lottery, 1890; and family life and related matters.
