BIOGRAPHICAL/HISTORICAL NOTE

Richard W. (Webster) Leche was born on May 17, 1898 in Orleans Parish, Louisiana to Eustace Webster Leche (1869-1930) and Stella Eloise (née Richard) Leche (1872-1926). He graduated from Warren Easton Boys' High School in New Orleans on February 6, 1917. While attending Tulane University, he enlisted in the U.S. Army in 1917 during World War I. He was discharged from military service on September 16, 1918. He returned to his studies and graduated from Loyola University's School of Law. He began practicing law in the early 1920s. On October 12, 1927, he married Elton Reynolds in Christ Church Cathedral in New Orleans. Leche and Elton had two sons: Richard Webster Leche, Jr. and Charles Eustace Leche. In 1930, Leche, Sr. managed Huey P. Long's U.S. senatorial campaign in New Orleans before becoming Governor Oscar K. Allen's secretary on May 16, 1932. Leche, Sr. also became a judge for the Court of Appeal for Orleans Parish on November 21, 1934.

During the 1936 Louisiana gubernatorial election, Leche, Sr. won the Democratic Party Primary against Cleveland Dear. He served as the 44th governor of Louisiana from May 12, 1936 until June 26, 1939. He continued many of Huey P. Long's programs but also worked with President Franklin D. Roosevelt to acquire federal funds and start Works Progress Administration projects for Louisiana. Leche, Sr. resigned on June 26, 1939, citing poor health. In 1940, he was convicted for a defrauding scheme involving the Louisiana Highway Commission. He served a portion of his federal prison sentence before being paroled in 1945. He was pardoned by President Harry S. Truman on January 16, 1953, which preceded a Louisiana State Bar Association pardon. He was licensed to renew his law practice by the Louisiana Supreme Court on February 17, 1955. He died in New Orleans on February 22, 1965 and is buried in Metairie Cemetery in New Orleans.

Elton "Tonnie" Reynolds (June 12, 1903-April 29, 1999) was the daughter of Elma Friou and Hampton Reynolds. She graduated from Newcomb High School in 1921 in New Orleans. She attended Newcomb College for two years before marriage. After Leche, Sr. was paroled, the two operated a tourist attraction called Bayou Gardens in Lacombe, Louisiana. After selling their property in Lacombe, Leche, Sr. and Elton returned to New Orleans. She died on April 29, 1999 and is buried in Metairie Cemetery in New Orleans.

Richard W. Leche, Jr. (September 29, 1929-) was the first child of Leche, Sr. and Elton Reynolds Leche. In the early 1950s, he joined the U.S. Air Force and served for two years. He then worked in airline reservation offices for over forty years until retirement.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

The bulk of the collection consists of Richard W. Leche's papers, specifically his gubernatorial papers. The gubernatorial papers are comprised of office files that document Leche and his administration's communications, relationships, and dealings with Louisiana state entities, Louisiana parish entities, federal entities, and specific individuals. In most cases, the office files are comprised of correspondence, but the files also contain reports, audits, studies, minutes, architectural designs and plans, and printed materials. In relation to Louisiana state entities, the largest series within the gubernatorial papers is the state departmental office files. These office files contain a large subseries of alphabetically arranged files where most materials related to Louisiana state entities (offices, departments, boards, commissions, etc.) are stored. Aside from the alphabetically arranged files, there are also separate subseries of state departmental office files pertaining to Louisiana state labor entities and topics; Louisiana State University; Louisiana State Penitentiary (Angola); and Louisiana state and parish public welfare entities and topics. Also included in the gubernatorial papers are series of office files arranged by and belonging to Leche's executive secretaries; office files related to federal entities and departments; office files related to the Louisiana State Legislature and Louisiana state legislation; office files related to Louisiana parishes and parish administration; office files of appointment and commission requests; office files related to Leche's addresses, speeches, and writings; and Leche's own personal office files.

In addition to the gubernatorial papers, Richard W. Leche's papers also include his pre-gubernatorial and post-gubernatorial papers; a variety of photographic materials and items that document Leche's life and career; musical scores and songbooks; artifacts; certificates, awards, and diplomas given to Leche; motion pictures; and a large collection of scrapbooks documenting Leche's administration.

The collection also consists of the papers of Elton Reynolds Leche, which include chiefly personal correspondence; genealogical materials; scrapbooks; photographic materials and items; and printed materials. Additionally, the collection consists of the papers of Richard W. Leche, Jr., which include personal correspondence; biographical information on various family members; photographic materials and items; and printed materials.
